Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or the demanding party to contest the claim.

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or if the party in who behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

ATTACHMENT A

Pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant Cisco Systems, Inc. hereby requests that Leonard C. Suchyta produce for inspection and copying the documents described below.

INSTRUCTIONS

A. As used in these Requests, the singular shall include the plural, and the past tense shall include the present tense, and vice versa; the words “and” and “or” shall be both conjunctive and disjunctive; the word “all” shall mean “any and all;” the word “including” shall mean “including but not limited to,” so as to be most inclusive.

B. Documents produced in response to these requests should be produced as they are kept in the usual course of business or should be organized and labeled to correspond with the categories in the request.

C. If you contend that a portion of a document is subject to being withheld under a claim of privilege or immunity from production or that a portion of a document is non-responsive to the requests below, produce the entire document with any necessary redactions.

D. If any document is withheld under a claim of privilege or immunity from production, separately identify each document for which such a privilege or immunity is claimed with the following information:

- (a) the date of, or appearing on, the document;
- (b) the document’s author;
- (c) the addressees of the document, if any;

- (d) the identity of each recipient of a copy of the document;
- (e) a description of the subject matter of the document;
- (f) the privilege claimed; and
- (g) the basis on which the privilege is claimed.

E. If a document request is silent as to the time period for which a response is sought, please respond by providing all information, regardless of time, through the date of your response.

DEFINITIONS

A. As used herein, “you” and “your” shall mean Leonard C. Suchyta, as well as your present or former partners, associates, legal assistants, employees, agents, consultants, and all others acting or purporting to act on your behalf.
